

DISPOC
Interdisciplinary Department

CIRCaP
Centre for the study of political change

Jean Blondel Tuesday Seminars

Academic year 2020–21 // first semester

Department of Social, Political and Cognitive Sciences
University of Siena

20 October 2020 – 11am

Jan Karremans (University of Salzburg)

Institutional resilience to the populist and technocratic challenges: Evidence from Italy (2008–2019)

3 November 2020 – 11am

Manuela Moschella & Nicola Martocchia (Scuola Normale Superiore)

Let's speak more? How the ECB responds to public contestation

10 November 2020 – 11am

Igor Guardiancich (University of Padua)

European semester, pension policy and member states' evaluation

17 November 2020 – 11am

Richard Higgott (Brussels School of Governance)

The Cultural Problematique in International Relations: Civilisations, States and World Order

24 November 2020 – 11am

Silvia Merler (Algebris Policy & Research Forum)

COVID-19: economic impact, the EU response, and the Italian position

15 December 2020 – 11am

Alberta Giorgi (University of Bergamo)

Hijack or Release? Religion in the populist discourse (and its relationship with gender)